Take the Papers.

BY N. P. WILLIS.

Why don't you take the papers?
They're the life of our delight;
Except about election time,
And then I read for spite.

Subscribe! you cannot lose a cent,
Why should you be afraid?
For cash thus paid in money lent
At interest four-fold paid.

Go, then, and take the papers,
And pay to-day, nor pay delay,
And my word for it is inferred,
You'll live until you're gray.

An old neighbor of mine,
While dying with a cough,
Desired to hear the latest news
While he was going off.

I took the paper and I read
Of some new pills in force;
He bought a box—and he is dead?—
No—hearty as a horse.

I knew two men, as much alike
As e'er you saw two stumps,
And no phrenologist could find
A difference in their bumps,

One takes the paper, and his life
Is happier than a King's,
His children can all read and write,
And talk of men and things.

The other took no paper, and
While strolling through the wood,
A tree fell down and broke his crown
And killed him—"very good."

Had he been reading of the news,
At home, like neighbor Jim,
I'll bet a cent that accident
Would not have happened him.

Why don't you take the papers?
Nor from the printer sneak,
Because you borrow from his boy
A paper every week.

For he who takes the papers,
And pays his bill when due,
Can live in peace with God and man,
And with the printer too."

FREEDMEN INVITED TO THE NORTH-WEST.

Great Inducements for them to emigrate there.

We learned on yesterday, says the Richmond Enquirer, from competent authority, that there were twenty-five thousand colored people below Williamsburg, who are not supporting themselves, and whom the Freedmen's Bureau have determined to remove from the lands on which they have squatted to some other locality. A letter from a citizen in that quarter urges the importance of consummating the removal at the very earliest day; both for the purpose of enabling the citizens whose lands are thus to be restored, to make their arrangements in time for the new year, and for the opportunity of installing the negroes into their new homes before the severities of winter shall be upon them.

Whither these negroes are to go, is a question which we understand greatly perplexes both them and the authorities who have charge of them. And not only is the selection of a proper place for settlement of deep importance to them, but, also to multitudes of their race, who, having dissolved their past relations, are roaming the country seeking a living. By a most timely co-incidence, we are just in receipt of a communication bearing directly upon this interesting question, and offering a complete solution. It is forwarded to us from Sandusky, Ohio, by a prominent and talented citizen of the Northwest, of the highest character and standing, who says, in the letter enclosing it:

"The following letter was written by a leading old-fashioned Abolitionist of the Northwest to a leading Democrat of the North. I send herewith a copy to place at your disposal for the general good. I most heartily accord with his views."

The letter thus written and thus endorsed and certified to us by a gentleman of unquestioned honor and reliability, we now present to the public, and hope that it will receive due attention from both white and black.

Surely nothing need be added to the array of advantages and attractions which this letter presents to the colored race, as inducements to emigrate to the Northwest; but yet it may be added that the immigrants will have the privilege of taking up forty acres of public lands as homestead, without paying a dime for it.

WHAT SHALL BE DONE WITH THE NEGROES.

The great question of what shall be done with the negroes is becoming each day more difficult, and every gleam of sunlight which opens up should have its full influence in the determination of our public action.

"The late elections have given an entirely new character to this subject, which will lead to the development of a system of emigration in large communities of the whole population of the United States.—The Northwest offers the strongest inducements for the freedmen to emigrante to it of any part of the United States.

"First. We have vast bodies of uncultivated lands in Iowa, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota, Indiana and Ohio, where the hardy industry of the black man is required to subdue it and bring it into cultivation. Iowa could receive and be benefited by the immigration of at least 500,000 freedmen, whose families could develop the vast wealth of the country,—the lands, leadmines and coal fields,—and engage in all the business of that great new State. Illinois could readily receive one million, and not unduly crowd her population, which now demands the service of a great body of menial laborers with her increasing wealth and population. Indians could profitably find employment for 750,000 of the colored people and could make their immigration exceedingly valuable to her productive power. Minnesota is a new and sparsely settled country, and could make easy room for as many as could find means of settlement. Indeed, the great State of Ohio and the Northwest need these people. They need the men for railroading and the work requisite for the improvement of the country. The colored women can find ready employment in the families of the whites, and all can build up homesteads and live like men, and not like cattle.

"The change of the colored population has become a necessity.

"First. The ill feeling created and cultivated between the two races in the Southern States has reached a point, when it is impossible for them to live together in harmony, and very difficult for them to live together at all, if not quite impossible. Such is clearly the conviction of every intelligent American in the country.

"Second. The Southern people are so bankrupted and destroyed by the fires which swept over their country, and it is impossible for them to furnish capital to profitably employ the blacks in any useful avocations.

"Third. Their system of labor in the South has to be supervised by the Freedmen's Bureau in such a way as to make the negro worthless and disgust the white man, and the connexion between the two races is not only unprofitable, but is in fact, dangerous and destructive to both races.

"Fourth. The colored people will be welcomed into the Northwestern States, not only as a laborer but as a citizen. He will have equality of rights. Where he works he sits at the same table with the farmer who hires him; his daughters and sons may freely associate with the sons and daughters of his employer. He goes to the same church, and, if talented, he will receive the same attention due to a white man and all that is due to his manhood,—which he never can hope to receive in Southern States anywhere, at any time hereafter. The matter has been settled and practically adopted as the uncontested law in the State of Ohio and several of the other Western States that negroes may vote. In Wisconsin they vote by judicial decision, in Ohio under the Civil Rights bill; and they can vote without interruption. Indeed, so kindly is the public sentiment towards our colored friends that at many places where white Copperheads are not tolerated at the polls, negroes are welcomed to the ballot box as its defenders and supporters, and are uniformly treated with the very highest respect by everybody.

"I have noted these as social and political reasons not without their real significance, but above, far above these are the pressing wants of the poor black people.

"First. The blacks are very destitute of provisions, clothes, and all of the comforts of life; which is the harder because they are living where general devastation has left the country desolate, and the people of every color without the means of living; so that one half cannot help the other.

"Second. Northern and Northwestern people have every facility for education without any prejudice against the blacks; and until these unfortunate people are provided with schools, the blacks can be accommodated with free schools and begin the work of progress at once.

"To give the work a practical efficiency, I propose that societies be immediately organized to provide for sending emigrants at once to the Northwest—in every Northwestern State—and to continue this work until the whole black population is properly provided for.

"This will do away with the necessity of the Freedmen's Bureau, will provide for the blacks, and develop the great Northwest."

"AN OLD FASHIONED ABOLITIONIST."

The Quincy, (Fla.) Commonwealth, says: Dr. Toland, who was convicted of bigamy at the August term of the county criminal court, was put upon the block and hired out by Sheriff Jordan to the highest bidder. He was bid in by the county of Gadsden for five years for $1,127, the amount of the and costs of prosecution. He was remanded to jail, and there awaits the command of the Board of County Commissioners.

ARTEMUS WARD--SHOWMAN.

ARTEMUS WARD, Showman, is exhibiting his imaginary menagerie in London, and cutting upon the "points" of his "animals" for the Punch. One of his latest and best things is the following:

"As regards Bears you can teach em to do interestin things but they're unreliable. I had a very large grizzly bear once who would dance and larf, and lay down, and bow his head in grief, and give a mournful wale, exactly. But he often annoyed me. It will be remembered that on the occassion of the battle of Bull Run it suddenly occurred to the federal soldiers that they had business in Washington which ought not to be neglected and they all started for that beautiful and romantic city, maintaining a rate of speed during the entire distance that would have done credit to the celebrated French steed Gladiateur. Very naturally our gov'ment was deeply grieved at this defeat, and I said to my Bear, shortly after, as I was givin a exhibition in Ohio,—I said 'Brewin are you not sorry the national arms has sustained a defeat?' His business was to wail dismal and bow his head down, the band (a barrel organ and a widdin) playing slow and melancholy moosic. What did the grizzly old cuss do, however, but commence dancin and larfin in a most joyous manner. I had a narrer escape from being imprisoned for disloyalty. I will relate another incident in the career of this retched Bear. I used to present what I called in the bills "A Beautiful Living Picture—showing the Bear's fondness for his Master," in which I'd lay down on a piece of carpeting, and the Bear would come and lay down beside me, rest his right paw on my brest, the Band playing Home, Sweet Home, very soft and low. Altho' I say it, it was a touchin thing to see. I have seen Tax Collectors weep over that performance.

Well, one day I said, 'Ladies and gentlemen we will now show you the bear's fondness for his master,' and I went and laid down. I thort I observed a peccolier expression into his eyes as he rolled clumsily to'ards me, but I did'nt dream of the scene which followed. He laid down and put his paw on my brust. 'Affection of the Bear for his master,' I repeated, 'You see the monarch of the Western Wilds in a subjugated state. Fierce as these animals naturally are, we now see that they have hearts and can love. This bear, the largest in in the world and measurin seventeen feet round the body, loves me as a mother loves her child.' But what was my horror when the grizzly and infamous Bear threw his other paw under me and rizz with me to his feet.—Then claspin me in a close embrace he waltzed up and down the platform in a frisky manner, actooally squeezin the breth out of me. Sum matters wuss a scurrilus young man in the audiens hollered 'Playfullness of the bear!—quick moosic!' I just 'scaped with my life. The Bear met with a violent death the next day by bein in the way when a hevily loaded gun was fired off by one of my men."

Feeling of the Canadians—The Clamor for the Execution of the Fenian Prisoners.

MONTREAL, Nov. 1.—There seems only one feeling among the Canadians—that the law must take its course with the Fenian prisoners. They maintain that these men's crimes cannot be held to be in any way considered as a political offence, that they came into a peaceable country without cause and murdered innocent men, that the Irish citizens hold them in as much detestation as did those of any other nationality, that it was a mere pretext to obtain plunder and to bring in fresh contributions to the treasury depleted by the wasteful extravagance of swindling leaders, and that no shadow of patriotism rests upon wicked and wanton outrage. They say, too, that they will rally around the Government in defence of the country, let the attack come from what quarter it may and that if they are beaten it must be in a fair stand up fight. These are the sentiments expressed on all sides both publicly and privately. At the same time they say that there is no desire for vengeance or unnecessary punishment, and if any reasonable consideration can be shown for leniency to the prisoners, that it will be exercised, but not from the fear of Fenian threats.

A Girdle of Steam Around the World.—A Philadelphia paper calls attention to the fact that the beginning of the new year will witness the insugaration of unbroken steam communication around the globe, to be thenceforth prosecuted as regularly as the arrival and departure of European steamships at our wharfs.—The steamship Henry Chauncey will sail on the 11th of December for the Isthmus; will connect there with the Golden City for San Francisco; and from San Francisco, on the first day of January, the steamship Colorado will sail for Yokohama in Japan, and Hong Kong in China. If arrived at the latter port the passenger wishes still to journey westward he can proceed by the boats of the Peninsular and Oriental Company to Bombay, and onward through the Red Sea to the Isthmus of Suez which crossed by rail conducts to the British line of Mediterranean steamers, touching at Malta and Gribralter, and arrive in England where a few hours of railway will enable him to take passage in one of a dozen line of steamships for this country the supposed point of departure.

No More National Banks to be Established.—The Comptroller of the Currency announced yesterday that bonds have been received for deposit with the Treasurer of the United States to an amount sufficient to secure the entire three hundred millions of national circulation authorized by law, and no more can be received after this date. The limit has been reached, and hereafter it will be useless to forward bonds, or to apply for increase of capital, or for the organization of new banks, or to do anything with the expectation of obtaing circulating notes.—National Intelligencer, 3d.

Raleigh Manufacturing Company.

At the meeting of the Stockholders of the Raleigh Manufacturing Company, held on Saturday evening at the banking house of the Raleigh National Bank, Gen. D M Barringer was appointed Chairman and Maj. W B Gulick Secretary. The charter was presented for the consideration of the meeting and unanimously adopted, after a slight alteration in its phraseology.

The Stockholders then proceeded to organize under the charater. The following gentlemen were elected as Directors, viz: W H Willard, Gen D M Barringer, Hon Daniel G Fowle, Hon Kemp P Battle, George W Mordecai, Esq., Gen R bert W. Haywood, W E Pierce, Col George Little and R W Pulliam.

After the election of the Board, W H Willard, Esq. was unanimously elected President, and appointed to go at once to the North and purchase such machinery as is required to put the establishment into immediate operation.—It was resolved to combine the offices of Superintendent, Secretary and Treasurer, and R M Taylor, Esq., was appointed to this position.—The property, 26 miles West of this City, known as the Orange Factory, in Orange County, has become the property of this Company and that known as the Gorgas Manufactory is selected for its operations in this City.

There will be at Orange Factory, 2100 spindles, in perfect order, in motion by the first day of January, and, very soon thereafter, from 40 to 60 looms will be put in operation in this City, to be added to as the Company may be enabled to command the means.

Mr Willard left for the North this morning, for the purpose of purchasing the necessary machinery.

Although the subscriptions of stock have been large and liberal, there is yet a deficiency to be made up. We would urge upon our merchants and men of capital the importance of subscribing at once. That the investment will pay handsomely we entertain not the shadow of a doubt. But even if that were questionable, every effort should be made to secure the establishment of an industrial enterprize that promises general benefit to the community and employment to the indigent.

We shall allude to the subject again.—Raleigh Sentinel Oct 22nd.

A New York Claimant Unwittingly Aided by a Forger.

Some time ago a gentleman from New York, having some business before the State Department, arrived in this city and took rooms at Willard's Hotel. On the breakfast table of the hotel, he was recognized by a gentleman opposite to him. The gentleman could not remember him, supposing that he had met him somewhere before, as he was a person well known all over the country. They chatted along, and the stranger, according to his story, represented himself as a brother of a prominent New England Senator, and kindly offered his services to help our friend to prosecute his claim, and further remarked that, as he had some business with Mr. Seward that morning, he would get the gentleman a letter from the Hon Secretary to the head of the division where his claim was. A few hours afterwards he returned with a letter of high recommendation from Mr. Seward. Our friend, armed with this, proceeded to the State Department, and upon the letter his business was transacted in a short time. He immediately took the next train for New York. In the meantime it turns out that the gentleman representing himself as the brother of the New England Senator is one of the most noted forgers in the country, and that the letter was a forgery. The letter was taken to Mr. Seward, who was surprised, at the close resemblance of his hand writing, at first declared it was not a forgery; but upon investigation he was forced to the conclusion that it was. The forger, being recognized by the police, took the shortest route for Baltimore.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

A German lady, supposed to have an attack of Cholera, was sent to a hospital in St. Louis some days ago, and in the progress of the disease, apparently died. Duly boxed in a rough pine coffin, the body was conveyed to the waiting room at the cemetry, but during the night the woman aroused from her trance, burst the half fastened lid from the coffin, and astounded the attendant watchman, not more by her sudden resurrection than by a denunciation of the miserable box in which they had attempted to bury her, which as she averred, she had a thousand dollars in cash at the time she went to the hospital. Returned to that institution and properly clothed, she learned that her husband had taken the money and without delay she proceeded to arouse him from his solitary slumbers. He opened the door. "With eyes fairly starting from their sockets," the report says, "he was paralized with fear at the supposed apparition." The wife demanded why he had robbed her, insisting at the same time that she was dead, as he no doubt hoped she was, and she had come home—he would find it harder than that to get rid of her. The husband was too soon induced to believe his eyes, and he begged the 'ghost' to leave, she might have the money but for God's sake to go away and not destroy him. With fear and trembling he handed her the missing money, and she opened the door and entered the house. She had no sooner done so than her husband, minus coat and hat, rushed out of the back door into the yard, over the fence, and that is the last that either his wife or his friends have seen of him.

Radical Meeting in New York.

GEN. BUTLER NOT ALLOWED TO SPEAK.

A very large meeting under radical auspices gathered in the City Hall Park, about a stand which had been erected in front of the Washington statue.

A majority of those in attendance were Democrats and Conservatives.

General Butler appeared on the stand and was greeted with hisses and hooting, and his appearance caused such an excitement among the crowd that it was some time before quiet could be restored. As he broke out by the remark

"Just here an Irishman exclaimed, "Hould on, Freddy, darling—is it truth you are telling us?" The darkey orator lifted his finger tragically to heaven in the affirmative. "Oh, murder!—did they execute you?" cried another. "Did they thumb screw you?" Fred answered that they did. "Did they bubk you like a chaw?" Fred answered that they did. "Begorra I owned that, if this be true, you must have been a d——d bad nagur!" has scarcely left the orator's lips when he closed the meeting in a general row.

Professor Rawle is of the opinion that hair, wool, feathers nails horns teeth &c, are nothing but vegetables and that it is not surprising to see them grow on the bodies of animals after they are dead, and may grow on a different place from that where they first germinated.

THE NEW JEWISH TEMPLE EMMANUEL IN NEW YORK.—The new Jewish synagogue, to be called the Temple Emmanuel, of which the corner-stone was laid Tuesday afternoon at the corner of Fifth avenue and Forty fifth street, New York, will have a frontage on fifth avenue of 105 feet, a depth of 184 feet, and the interior will measure 90 by 160 feet. The building is designed to accommodate nearly two thousand person. The cost of it will be between half a million and a million dollars; and it is reported that a very large proportion of the sum needed has been subscribed.

The building will be elegantly constructed throughout. The walls are to be of Ohio sand stone and Newark stone; the portico partly of Scotch granite; and the woodwork mainly of white oak and black walnut. The flooring of the vestibules and aisles will be a mosolated pavement. The whole interior is to be delicately tinted, with ornamentation in bas-relief, stained glass, &c. The robing and vestry rooms are to be a small building adjoining. It is expected the synagogue will be finished in time for the Eastern services 1868.

A Family Attacked by a Rat.

[From the Mineral Point (Wis) Tribune]

A few nights since Dr. Delgairns was called to see a child of Mr. Wesley that was represented to be bleeding to death from some unknown cause. On the doctor's arrival, he found the child bleeding profusely from a small artery on the temple, which he promptly checked. On inquiry, it was found that soon after retiring, Mrs. Wesley felt something pierce one of her hands slightly, but thought nothing of the matter. Soon after a small child in a crib near the bed commenced crying, as if in severe pain. Mr. Wesley arose quieted the child and again retired. A short time after, a smaller child in bed with its parents, began to cry, and was found to be bleeding from the head as above stated. It appeared that a rat had been the cause of all the pain and blood. His ratship first made his attack on the hand of Mrs. W., then upon the child in the crib, and finally upon the head of the infant, leaving the marks of his teeth in several places on the temple of the latter.

Gov. Curtis, of Pennsylvania, has set himself in opposition to the prescription which appropriates Friday for hanging purposes. He lately assigned Monday as the day for an execution and his more recent death warrant has named Tuesday for the hanging. Whether this will relieve Friday of its present odium, or merely involve other days in it, is the question.

THE CROSBY OPERA HOUSE.
ART ASSOCIATION.

(From Chicago Times.)

The success of this—the most stupendous Art enterprise of the nineteenth century—is already an accomplished fact. The assurance of Mr. Crosby to that effect, strengthened by the concurrent testimony of the wealthy and influential Committee appointed to superintend the draw, and the personal guarantee of Samuel M. Nickerson, Esq. (a gentleman whose undoubted integrity is backed by unlimited pecuniary means) has appeared in a former issue of this paper. The sale of certificates has been rapid and immense, and fully justified thus far the expectations of the most sanguine; but a large number still remain in the hands of agents scattered all over the country, the extreme shortness of time (as originally limited) precluding the possibility of their sale before the date of drawing.

One obstacle, which has seriously retarded sales, has been the absolute impossibility of furnishing engravings as fast as required.—Although the presses of the Association have been worked night and day, the demand has far exceeded the supply.

After duly considering this, Mr. Crosby has concluded—in justice to the interests he represents, and in deference to the wish of the public, which (so far as can be ascertained) is almost universal—to delay for a short time the closing of the subscription books, so as to extend the area of membership as widely as possible.

In adopting this course, the Actuary has consulted the members of the Committee on drawing and others, who agree with the management that a short extension of time will amply suffice, at the present rapid rate of sale, to dispose of the remaining certificates. The names of the Committee are a sufficient guarantee of the soundness and disinterestedness of their advice, as thorough and competent business men:

COMMITTEE ON DRAWING.

W. F. Coolbaugh, President Union National Bank.
Amos T. Hall, Hall, Kimbrick & Co.
Clinton Briggs, Ewing Briggs & Co.
J. C. Dore, President of the Board of Trade.
James H. Bowen, President Third National Bank.
James C. Fargo, Superintendent American Express.
Francis C. Hoffmann, Ex-Lieut. Governor.
L. Y. Munn, Munn & Scott Elevator.
J. A. Ellis, President Second National Bank
E. G. Hall, Hall, Kimbark & Co.

To these names will be added delegates from other cities.

The integrity of all connected with the management of this colossal enterprise is too firmly established to admit of a moment's doubt or cavil. The honor and reputation of some of the wealthiest capitalists and influential business men in the country are identified with its ultimate triumph and complete success. For reasons above stated, these gentlemen not only cordially approve, but advise this temporary delay, confident that such a policy will equally inure to the benefit of the public and the interests of the Association. No one who can form an approximate idea of the enormous scope and magnitude of this truly wonderful enterprise—involving as it has from the moment of its organization (barely three months ago) the establishment of hundreds of local agencies in nearly every city, town and hamlet of the States and Territories, the employment of an immense clerical force, the printing of thousands of superb engravings, and the immense details included under the [illegible] engraving, expressing, &c.—will hesitate to admit or concur in the propriety of this step.

We can assure our readers that every pledge given or promise made will be faithfully carried out, in strict accordance with its original spirit.

An elegant descriptive Catalogue, giving a complete list of Prizes, has just been issued by the Association, giving full particulars, &c., which they send to any address on application to the principal office, 625 Broadway, New York, or 28 Opera House, Chicago.

☞ See Advertisement headed "A Fortune for some one."

The Management would announce that the time limited for the Closing of the Books has been found too short to complete an undertaking of such magnitude.

The sales have been very large—sufficient to insure the entire success of the enterprise.—Had it been possible, within the short time allowed, to have furnished the Engravings as fast as they have been required, there is not the least doubt that every certificate would now have been disposed of.

There has been a general desire, however, to receive the Engravings at the time of subscription, and the difficulty heretofore of fully complying with this desire has materially retarded the progress of the sale.

A portion of the certificates consequently remain unsold. The Committee agree with the management that the books should not be closed, when a short extension of the time, at the present rapid rate of sales, would suffice to dispose of the remaining certificates.

The subscription books will, therefore, be continued open for a short time longer. The day for the Award of Premiums will soon be announced.

THE CHURCHES OF THE SOUTH.—A correspondent of the Atlanta Era, commenting on Mr. Beecher's comparison of the churches and schoolhouses of that section to "lighthouses twinkling along the edge of a continent of darkness," says—"In 1850 there were 21,387 churches in the Northern States, and 16,665 in the Southern States. The proportion, 1 church to 628 persons in the North and 1 church to 562 persons in the South. The accommodations of these churches were 8,656,661 sittings for 13,484,922 persons North and 5,541,875 sittings for 9,664,665 persons South Thus 54 persons out of 100 could attend services at the same time in the North and 57 out of 100 in the South, including whites and slaves alike.

Thus the Northern States had only 7 per cent greater accommodations than the South Sure y this was not a sufficient difference to justify a charge of heathenism upon the Southern people."

The Constitutional Amendment was Rejected by the Georgia Legislature—only two affirmative Votes.

There are 25,000 colored people below Winchester who are not supporting themselves.

PEOPLE'S PRESS.

SALEM, N. C.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1866.

☞ We are now making out our accounts for subscriptions, job work and advertising, and, in the course of a few weeks, we will place unsettled notes and accounts in the hands of a collector.

LATE FROM BALTIMORE.—Great interest is naturally, taken in the settlement of the Baltimore troubles. The following decision will relieve the anxiety:

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13.

Judge Bartol has just rendered his decision in the case of the imprisoned or new Commissioners. He sustains the power of the governor to remove the old Commissioners. Great cheering in the Court room by the friends of the Governor and the new Commissioners.

Since the above, Judge Bartol having decided the habeas corpus case in favor of the new Police Commissioners, they at once entered upon the discharge of their duties.

STAY AT HOME.—The partial failure of crops in various portions of the State, and the unsettled state of the South has induced many good citizens to leave this State.

The Raleigh Sentinel says:

We believe our people who take this course are in error. We are satisfied, that the day they leave North Carolina, unless their means are ample to go wherever they list, they take a bad step. We have positive information that none of our people who have left the State, except the Friends who have gone to join their friends in Indiana, are now satisfied in their new homes. Most that we have heard from, are arranging their matters to return to their native State. Industry, frugality, temperance and honesty will secure a good living in North Carolina."

We know that a gentleman of intelligence and observation, recently made a western tour, and has returned well satisfied, everything considered, to remain in North Carolina.

IMMIGRATION MEETING.—Pursuant to previous notice, a meeting was held in Salisbury, on the 8th inst., the object of which was the encouragement of immigration to this State, and especially to Rowan County, from other States and countries.

The meeting disclaimed any hostile feelings to the Northern people, or the people of any other country, and extend a cordial, political or religious opinions, to come and settle among us and with their labor and capital to assist in the development of our vast resources.

The organization of a County Agricultural Society is also spoken of in Rowan.

Hon. John Kerr, has accepted an invitation to deliver an eulogy upon the life and character of the late Hon. John M. Morehead, in Wentworth, N. C., on Tuesday of next May Court for Rockingham.

The Washington Chronicle denies the statement of the Intelligencer that there is any purpose of military organization in the call of the Soldier's and Sailor's Committee for a grand mass meeting of the Royal Leagues to welcome and encourage and sustain Congress, on its approaching assemblage.

The Chicago Tribune mentions a strange mortality among the horses in Lyons township, Illinois, several valuable animals having died within the past few days. It is reported to have been caused by the grasshoppers, which being taken into the mouth, bite the tongues of the animals and make them so sore that they will not eat thereafter, and starve to death. The cases occurred only among horses turned out to grass.

☞ There are seven hundred and fifty paper miles in active operation in the United States. They produce two hundred and seventy million pounds paper, which, at an average of ten cents per pound, would be worth $27,000,000. As it requires about a pound and a half of rags to make one pound of paper, there are consumed by these mills four hundred millions pounds in a single year. If we estimate the rags to cost four cents per pound, there would be a profit of $11,000,000 in this branch of business.

A PROCLAMATION.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY, JONATHAN WORTH, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Whereas, By a law of this State, it is made the duty of the Governor of the State, for the time being, "to set apart a day in every year, and by proclamation give notice there, as a day of solemn and public thanksgiving to Almighty God, for past blessings, and of supplication for his continued kindness and care over us, as a State and nation."

Now, therefore, I do, by this, my proclamation, set apart THURSDAY, the 29th day of NOVEMBER next, as such day, and do most respectfully and earnestly recommend that it be observed accordingly by all the good people of this State.

Given under my hand & attested by the seal of the State, at the Executive office, in the city of Raleigh, on the 31st day of October, A D., 1866, and in the ninety-first year of American Independence. By the Governor:

JONATHAN WORTH.

WM. H. BAGLEY, Private Secretary.

ROWAN COUNTY COURT.—We learn from the Salisbury Banner, that the case of Messrs Mitchell and Bencini, (for a shooting affray in the streets of Salisbury) was disposed of by a fine of $50 each.

"The case of most interest, says the Banner, was that of State vs. Dr. M. L. Chunn, indicted for an assault and battery upon the body of one David Williams, a free person of color. Dr. Chunn very properly submitted the case. The man Dave Williams swore substantially, that Dr. Chunn, and others to the number of five, including the other defendant James A. Holt, came to his house in the night—that the Dr. called him out, and after some words, struck him three blows, then jumped on him—that he, (Williams,) escaped in some way; that when he got some 25 steps off, he was fired upon and when he had got some fifty steps he was fired upon again. The witness likewise stated that Mr. Holt was upon the ground, and urging the Dr. to commit an assault upon him. It was then shown by three or four white witnesses who were along, that Dr. Chunn did not strike Dave a single time; that Mr. Holt did not get out of his buggy, and did not say one word during the difficulty.—That no shot was fired, and there were no fire arms in the crowd. Under these circumstances, the Solicitor, Mr. Baily, felt it to be his duty to enter a nol. pros. as to Mr. Holt, and move the court to require the witness, Williams, to give security for his appearance at the Superior Court, to answer a charge of perjury. The motion was granted. The Solicitor remarked that while he stood ready as one of the officers of the Law, and while he thought that the court and jury should likewise hold themselves ready, to guarantee to the freedmen their free rights under the law, that the law must be the master of all, white and black; yet when a freedman took undue advantage of the law allowing him to testify by committing perjury against white men, that it was the stern duty of the Courts to protect the whites of the country against such attacks, and by a swift and severe punishment, to teach the blacks that the privilege allowed them to testify, must not be used corruptly as a means to injure and oppress the whites by false accusation."

Important Legal Decision.

A decision has been given in the Probate Court of Sumter County Ala, embracing the following points:

1. The ordinance of the State Convention and the different Acts of the Legislature for the protection of administrators, executors and guardians, are valid; and investment made by them in good faith in the late Confederate securities, under color of law, will now be upheld; the loss falling upon the estate, and not upon such executors, administrators or guardians.

2. Contracts made during the war, which recognized the lawfullness of Confederate bonds and Treasury notes and which were then valid, will not be pronounced void.

3. Collections of debts due an estate, by the personal representative, in Confederate Treasury paper, the debt was due before the war, and the notes became worthless in the hand of the administrator.

4. Where rights had already been vested before the surrender, or acts have been performed under the laws then in force, the public policy which existed at the time such right accrued, and not present public policy, will control the question of their legality; and loyalty to the National Government does not require interference with such past transactions, if honestly made; and in accordance with the laws of the State at the time.

5. The administrator in this case, having in good faith sold a large amount of cotton, by the advice and order of the Probate Court in 1863, for a price, and having taken a note for the purchase money from the purchaser, which was delivered to the guardian of the heirs, and afterwards collected by the guardian in Confederate money he is not liable to account again for said cotton; although the same was made with reference to the market price in Confederate money.

Meeting of the Stockholders of the National Express Company.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the National Express Company, held on Monday evening at the Exchange hotel, a committee was appointed to prepare a report on the re-organization of the company. The committee presented their report at an adjourned meeting held on yesterday morning. The report sets forth fully the affairs of the company, and recommends that a call be made on the stock-holders for an amount that will raise their subscriptions thirty per cent. The report was adopted, and also a series of resolutions founded thereon, among which was one to the effect that the next Legislature should be applied to for an amendment to the charter, as to consolidate the stock at forty per cent.

A resolution was unanimously adopted that Mr. Perot of Baltimore should be asked to take the Presidency of the company. Nominations were also made of the directors.

The resolutions and report exhibit great confidence on the part of the gentlemen who drew them up, that the company, by energetical and economical management can be made a complete success. During the proceedings a communication was read from the committee who had gone to New York to confer with the Merchants Union Express Company, in which it was stated that that company declined to take the proposed stock of the National Express and Transportation Company.

The operations of the company are to cease until money is raised by the new call to carry it on.—Richmond Times Oct. 30th.

BLEEDING FROM THE NOSE.—Some two years ago, while going down Broadway, New York, blood commenced dropping from my nose quite rapidly. I stepped aside and applied my handkerchief intending to repair to the nearest hotel, when a gentleman accosted me saying:—"Just put a piece of paper in your mouth, chew it rapidly, and it will stop your nose bleeding." Thanking him, rather doubtfully I did as he suggested, and the flow of blood ceased almost immediately I have seen the remedy tried since quite frequently, and with success always. Doubtless any substance would answer the same purpose as well as paper, the stoppage of the flow of blood being caused doubtless by the rapid motion of the lower jaw, and the contraction of the muscles and arteries connecting the jaws and nose.—Cultivator.

Local and Miscellaneous.

J. H. B. - - - - - - - - - - LOCAL EDITOR.

WE do believe that this is the dullest, the most uneventful and quiet town in all the broad domains of Christendom. Why don't somebody shoot himself, or drown himself, or choke himself, or, or do anything in the world to get up a little excitement and furnish an interesting item for the local column! In despair of having any matter-of-fact news to paragraph for the edification of our readers, this week, we dropped into a sentimental mood the other day, and, assuming a becomingly professional air, fell to writing a novel, the thrilling plot of which flashed like a meteor o'er our fertile brain. Grasping our goose-quill in perfect ecstacy, with the glorious vision of an immortal name beaming upon us, we girated as follows:

* * Softly sank the golden sun behind the distant western hills—day melted into twilight like a troubled thought into a holy dream—one by one the beautiful birds among the willows ceased to warble their flute-like songs, and the nightingale alone trilled forth her mournful melody—the first radiant star of night hung upon the verge of the horizon, like a silver drop from an o'erflowing urn; and lovely silence, like a pensive maid, stole gently o'er the scene, * * when a great big yaller dog stuck his ugly nose in at our office door, and caused us to lose the thread of our interesting narrative! Too bad.

SITTING UP and "waiting for the stars to fall" may be pleasant occupation for great astronomers—but it's no fun for us. We tried it on the night of the 13th, but won't be apt to try it on the night of another 13th, unless the tail-end of the weather-cock should be to the northward. The night was very cold, and with all our hot coffee we couldn't keep warm, nor with all our reading of "Baxter's Early Piety" could we be deeply enough interested to keep from nodding. Our patience was well-nigh exhausted by Twelve o'clock; by One it was entirely gone; and just as the old church bell rung out Two we were tucking the bed-cover around our chilly ears, disappointedly chattering—

"'Twas ever thus, from childhood's hour
I've seen my fondest hopes decay."

Yes, we were sorely disappointed in expecting to catch inspiration from a grand display of meteorolites—we caught nothing but a bad cold. "Good-bordig—how do you cub od?" were the words with which we greeted our street-friends next day.

In [illegible] issue we noticed the fact that Mr. Henry Meinung's coach-shop was entered during the night-time by some mischievous fellows, who amused themselves considerably at Mr. M's expense. Several days ago we received a drop-letter, which reads, verbatim et literatim, as follows:

"Mister Local our mammy knows we're out does yourn and we expects to carrie on as much mischief as we can in Salem."

Now, look out boys—you'll commit yourselves. We don't want to get you into a "fuss;" but this very letter is conclusive proof of two facts which would constitute a fine-tooth comb if we were disposed to use them as such and rake you out. It proves, firstly, that you are Salem boys; and, secondly, the broad disguise of writing, etc., proves that you are intelligent boys. We could lay our hand on the crowd.

SERIOUS THEFT.—On Saturday night, the 3d instant, the engine house at Fries's saw mill was clandestinely entered and a very serious theft was committed. A leaden pipe about twenty-five feet long, one iron rod and several large screw-taps, all the brass oil cups, and sundry minor pieces of machinery, were carried off, leaving the engine in a perfectly disabled condition. The loss is about fifty dollars. We would have chronicled this roguery sooner, but could not get the particulars of the affair, and even now we fear the statement is a little imperfectly made.

SALLUST, the renowned Epicurean of ancient Pompeii, was particularly fond of good Oysters—so history tells us—but we know he never saw any to compare with such as our neighbor, Joe Hall, Esq., keeps constantly on hand. Joe knows how to do 'em up too. If you don't believe it, give him a call.

SPLENDID bargains are offered the people by Wm. H. Smith & Co.,—dealers in staple and fancy dry-goods, dress goods, cloths and cassimeres, hats, notions, glassware, hardware, etc.,—who are closing business in this place by selling out at or below cost. Only think of fine calicoes at fifteen and eighteen cents per yard!

WE advise our farmer friends to read G. F. Reich's advertisement. Excellent articles of property are offered to the highest bidder.

THE SCHEDULE.—For the information of the community generally we publish the following schedule of mail lines to and from Salem:

High Point stage (daily) arrives at 6½ A. M., and leaves at 8 A. M. Persons desiring mail matter to be carried must post before or by nightfall of the previous day.

Wytheville (tri weekly buggy mail) arrives on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 4 P. M., and leaves on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7 A. M.

Reidsville (semi-weekly horse mail) arrives on Wednesday and Saturday, at 5½ P. M., and leaves on Monday and Thursday, at 7 A. M.

Greensboro', (weekly buggy mail) via Kernersville, arrives on Saturday, at 4 P. M., and leaves on Friday, at 7 A. M.

THE MILITIA.—On Saturday, the 10th instant, an election was held, at the courthouse in Winston, for field officers of the seventy-first regiment North Carolina militia, which resulted as follows:

J. C. Holder, Colonel; John I. Nissen Lieutenant Colonel; and William Morris, Major.

The Result in Maryland.—The result of the Maryland election is a gain of one Conservative member of Congress and one Conservative Senator, in addition to a Conservative Legislature, with a sufficient majority to remove Judge Bond and to sustain Governor Swann.

The New London (Conn.) Chronicle says: We saw a man a day or two since who ought to be in a lunatic asylum. He had over $600 in twenty dollar gold pieces loose in his pocket. MR. DAVIS.—A dispatch from Fortress Monroe says that the rooms in Carroll Hall, which Mr. Davis has been occupying ever since he was removed from the casemate in which he was first incarcerated, are being entirely renovated. The iron bars which cover the windows and doors are being removed and light curtain shades used in their stead. A complete suit of rooms are being prepared for his reception in the hall, and every arrangement made that will conduce to his health and comfort while he remains a prisoner.

The government received $1,115,442 from internal revenue last week, making the total income from this source since July, 1866, $129,090,852, or equal to an average of more than seven millions a week which would give a yearly aggregate of over three hundred and sixty five millions.

STATE NEWS.

Highway Robbery.

On yesterday (Thursday) morning the 8th inst., about 9 o'clock, Mr Wm E. Thompson Deputy United States Collector, was on his way from Asheboro' to this place, when about a mile this side of New Salem, Randolph county, three men suddenly rushed up, seized and robbed him of all the money he had in his possession, some twenty five hundred dollars. Among the bills were a number of the denomination of $50 and $100.

We hope that every possible effort will be made to detect the perpetrators of this bold and daring highway robbery.—Greensboro Patriot.

Death of Henry D. Turner.

We regret to learn that this venerable and worthy citizen, long a resident of Raleigh, departed this life on Tuesday last. Mr Turner was in the 76th year of his age. He had suffered long, but he was patient and resigned.—He is sincerely mourned by many relatives and friends.

DEATH OF HON. A. B. F. GAITHER.—We regret to learn that Hon. A. B. F. Gaither died at his residence in this county, after a protracted illness, on Tuesday last. Mr. Gaither represented this county in the Commons a number of years, and was a useful member of the Legislature. He possessed a good heart and manly disposition, and his demise is deplored by a circle of relatives and friends.

FALL PLOWING.—The fall is the time to plow land that is pretty well run. Especially is this the case where clay predominates In such case the plow should be run an inch or two deeper than usual. This should not be neglected, as the soil thrown up from below is the original soil, and has the strength of the top-soil ere it became exhausted. This will be like a coat of manure, the frost and the rains having the effect to decompose and mellow and prepare the soil thus thrown up. It needs the elements to prepare it. The sun the succeeding summer finishes what the frost failed to do.—A coat of manure worked into the top soil would aid this operation—but it will do well without the manure.

This plan (of plowing deeper) has another advantage, it increases the soil—the available soil for the growth, and is equivalent to sub soiling to a small degree—so that two important points are reached at one operation, and the extra outlay is a little more horse power not necessarily an additional horse. So there is no interference with this plan; no extra expense; it is simply adjusting your clevis pin.—Rural World.

The American Farmer.

November No.

The various systems of Field Rotation, Three, Four, Five and Seven Field, are fully discussed in the present and previous numbers. These and the several articles on "Clover Culture," "Our Horses," "The value of our Lands," &c., in recent numbers, indicate the thoroughly practical character of the "Old Farmer." While the large amount of matter on Fruit Growing, gathered from the best sources, show how well the "Pioneer" Journal keeps itself at the head of the Agricultural and Horticultural progress of the day.

In all its leading departments of Field, Orchard and Garden cultivation, and Stock growing, whether in its original or selected issues, The Farmer shows a direction which is at once practical and scientific.

Its very apparent sympathy with Southern interests has caused the American Farmer to lose favor with a certain class of Northern readers and advertisers, and it deserves therefore, on every account, the support of Southern people.

DIED:

In Denmark Tenn., October 30th, FLORENCE A. infant son of Floridore A. and Isabella Keebin.—Aged 18 months.

"Thou hast died as roses die,
That perish with a breeze."

Sweet Babe, thou art gone! Too pure for earth, thou hast gone to bloom in Paradise. In life's bright morning thou hast fled! Thy gain is ours, sweet spirit, and thy pure and lovely soul shall dwell in heaven forever more. Like a sweet rosebud, thou hast drooped and withered, but thy memory will linger with us still.

Fond parents your babe sleeps in the tomb,
A calm and peaceful rest,
But glorious in immortal bloom,
His soul lives with the blest.

A golden harp is in his hand,
Fresh flowers deck her brow,
And 'mid white gleaming angel bands,
His voice is warbling now. R.

The Death of Miss Seward.

The New York Times, referring to the death of Miss Fannie Seward, the daughter of Secretary Seward, which occurred in Washington, on Monday, remarks:

Since the death of his wife, Mr Seward's affections have clung most closely and fondly to his daughter, whose character resembling her mother's, was well calculated to win love and tender regard from all that knew her.—The fearless courage with which she threw herself between her father's bed and the uplifted knife of the assassin Payne, and the tenacity with which she clung to his arm, and sought to divert his deadly aim, attest a trait in her character. Payne afterward said that if he could have made up his mind to strike her out of his way he could have accomplished his purpose upon the Secretary, but that her face between his weapon and her father disarmed him he had not the heart to take her life also. Mr Seward's attachment to her was always most warm and devoted. While travelling in Europe, he never retired at night without writing to her full descriptions of all he had seen and heard during the day; she was always in his thoughts when absent, and always closely watchful of his comfort and happiness at home. That home already so shadowed with gloom, will be darker than ever, now that she who gave it so much of its light, has left it forever.

Counterfeit Notes.

The observatives of the Secret Service Division of the Tressury have discovered that counterfeits of $100 notes of the First National Bank of Boston, the $100 notes of the First National Bank of Cincinnati, and the $100 notes of the National Central Bank of New York city, are in circulation. The counterfeits of the latter named notes are pronounced excellent, the engraving being first class, and the general appearance good. The only difference known to exist in the letter "T," in the word "maintain," near the female figure on the right hand side of the face of the note, that letter being imperfect in the counterfeit issue.— Ironicle.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—A new and dangerous counterfeit of United States legal tender notes of the denomination of fifty dollars, made its appearance at the treasury department, a few days since, and was pronounced by General Spinner, U. S. treasurer, to be one of the most skilfully executed ever brought to his notice. For the information of the public we append a description of it Its detection was caused by the vignette of General Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the U. S. treasury, which, on inspection, was found to have been split from a $2 note and neatly pasted on the counterfeit $50. The engraving of the other portions of the note is cleverly imitated, and can only be distinguished from the genuine by the closest inspection.

COTTON MANUFACTORIES IN ALABAMA.—We are pleased to see that the attention of our people is being earnestly directed toward the erection of cotton factories. At Prattsville, 14 miles from Montgomery, upon Swift Creek, the factory of Mr. Daniel Pratt is already in operation, giving occupation to 350 laborers—men, women and children One mile above Prattsville, upon the same creek, is the site of the new factory being established by our fellow citizens, Messrs. Hunter & Faber, the machinery for which has just been received from Liverpool. At Autaugaville, 25 miles from Montgomery, preparations are being made to resume operations at the factory upon Autauga Creek, and in a few weeks we may expect to hear the hum of the spindles.—These three factories of Autauga, upon creeks which supply an unfailing water power, will give employment to not less than 1,200 men, women and children A company of capitalists is examining the Falls of the Coosa above Wetumpka, with a view to erect an extensive factory at that future Lowell of the South—This will be but the pioneer of others, for the situation at Wetumpka being once developed, nothing can prevent that village from becoming the manufacturing seat of Alabama. The fine water power at Tallahassee has already invited the enterprise of a flourishing manufacturing company, which is at present increasing its machinery, and extending its sphere of usefulness and profit.—Montgomery Mail.

A NEW PAPER,

TO BE PUBLISHED IN SALEM, N. C.

ON THE FOURTH DAY OF JANUARY NEXT, (1867,) the Subscriber will commence, in this place, the publication of a Large Weekly Newspaper, to be called THE SALEM OBSERVER. The "People's Press" will not be issued after the second week in December.

I shall assume editorial duty with a proper appreciation of its dignified responsibility, and with the firm resolve to be of unselfish service to My Country and My Native State. The chief objects for which I shall labor are A SPEEDY RE-UNION OF THE NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN STATES and the advancement of ALL THE INTERESTS OF NORTH CAROLINA. I shall adopt and defend such political measures as will afford us the best and safest means of re-welding the broken links that once so happily bound us together in a Glorious and Powerful Union, believing that our only hope of future prosperity must be based on a re-establishment of the principles fought for and obtained by our immortal forefathers.

Aside from these cardinal features, THE OBSERVER will be an interesting and instructive Literary, Business and Local Journal; and no paper in the State can be a better medium for advertising. It will be printed on perfectly new and elegant material, and subscribers will find it one of the cheapest papers in North Carolina.

DETAILS OF THE DRAWING.

The Subscription Books, on being closed, will be placed in the hands of the following gentlemen, who kindly consent to act as the Chicago members of the Committee:

Wm. F. Coolbaugh, Pres. Union National Bank
Amos T. Hall, Treasurer C. B. & Q. R. R.
E. G. Hall, Hall, Kimbark & Co.
Clinton Briggs, Ewing, Briggs & Co.
J. C. Dore, President of the Board of Trade.
James H. Bowen, President 3d National Bank.
James C. Fargo, Sup't American Express.
Francis A. Hoffman, Ex-Lieut. Governor.
I. Y. Munn, Munn & Scott Elevator.
J. A. Ellis, President Second National Bank.

These gentlemen, together with such others, from different parts of the country as they may select to fairly represent the Shareholders, will have the sole management of the award in all its details.

The plan of the award adopted is the following:

Two hundred and ten thousand numbers, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and three hundred and two tickets inscribed with the names of the Premiums (to wit, the Opera House and three hundred paintings, and the bust of Lincoln,) will be placed in another. From these wheels a number and a premium will be drawn simultaneously—the number drawn in each instance taking the premium drawn with it.

SPECIAL CARD TO THE READER.

Harper's New Monthly MAGAZINE

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day—The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore.)

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York World.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood cuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal It has great power in the discrimination of a love of pure literature. Trubner's Guide to American Literature London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as can not be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.

The National Thanksgiving

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The following proclamation has just been issued:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A PROCLAMATION.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has been pleased to vouchsafe to us as a people another year of that national life which is an indispensable condition of peace, security and progress. That year has, moreover, been crowned with many peculiar blessings. The civil war that so recently closed among us has not been anywhere reopened. Foreign intervention has ceased to excite alarm or apprehension; intrusive pestilence has been benignly mitigated, domestic tranquility has improved; sentiments of concillation have largely prevailed and affections of loyalty and patriotism have widely revived, our fields have yielded quite abundantly; our mining industry has been richly rewarded; and we have been allowed to extend our railroad system far into the interior recesses of the country, while our commerce has resumed its customary activity in foreign seas. These great national blessings demand a national acknowledgment.

Now therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend that Thurday, the 29 h day of November next, be set apart and be observed everywhere in the several States and Territories of the United States by the people thereof as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, with due remembrance that "in His temple doth every man speak of His honor."

I recommend, also, that on the same solemn occasion they do humbly and honestly implore Him to grant to our National Councils, and to our whole people, that Divine wisdom which alone can lead any nation into the ways of all good.

In offering these national thanksgivings, praises and supplications, we have the Divine assurance that "the Lord remaineth a King forever. Them that are meek shall He guide in judgment, and such as are gentle shall He learn His way. The Lord shall give strength to His people; and the Lord shall give to His people the blessing of peace."

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this the 8th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, 1866, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety first.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

A PLAN TO RESTORE THE MAIL SERVICE OF THE SOUTH.

TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Florida and Texas:

Having recently returned from the South, I am well aware of the great inconvenience to which the Southern people are subjected on account of mail facilities. This is to a great extent owing to the oath with which contractors are required to comply, there being but few men in the South who can take it. Having conferred with the proper authorities, and obtained their approval, I find that this difficulty can be obviated and the mails established upon every route at the South, and at the highest rates admissible for the people of either North or South. Being a National Union man, (late of North Carolina,) by which I mean one that is alike opposed to the heresies of the extremists North and South, I can take this oath and thus form the connecting link between the Southern people and the United States Government. This I propose to do and to establish mails on every route at the South now destitute of them, as follows:

Any person who is desirous of becoming a contractor will address me at once, stating the route or routes for which he wishes to become contractor, (stating the extreme points to be connected, which of course, should be on some route heretofore established.) I will then contract for such route or routes in my own name, and let the parties have them at a discount of 2½ per cent., on the annual amount for carrying the mails on said route or routes: This arrangement will secure the route to the subcontractor substantially the same as if it were his own contract, and frequently at a better price than could be contained in the usual way where there is so much competition.

My per centage or mileage as above, will not be required until the end of the first quarter.

The first applicant for a route or routes, judging by the postmark on the letter of application, will have the preference, other things being equal.

Persons when making application should send a guaranty signed by at least two guarantors.* The guaranty should be certified to by a postmaster or a judge of a court of record †—Applicants can, if they desire, obtain blank forms, printed by the Government, by addressing either the undersigned or the 2nd Assistant Postmaster General, Geo. W. McClellan, who will take pleasure in giving all the information that may be desired.

As I am recognized as principal in this matter, payment must necessarily come through me. I can, however, give the parties drafts on the Sixth Auditor of the United States Treasury for all the quarters for which the contract may have been awarded, and these can be presented one at a time as they fall due, and the money drawn substantially the same as if the parties were bona fide contractors. In this case the expenses [two and a half cents] should be paid by or before the expiration of the first quarter after the commencement of service; otherwise payment for this quarter will be drawn by the undersigned, expenses deducted, and the residue, with drafts for the remaining quarters, forwarded to the parties carrying the mails. If persons prefer, I will draw and forward their money at the end of every quarter, without extra charge. I would, however, prefer that they accept the drafts, in order that they may have the matter in their hands.

It would be a source of much gratification to me if I be the means of extending mail facilities to the Southern people. Their attention is therefore respectfully called to this matter. As I am not required to cut down, through competition, it would doubtless be to their interest to make speedy application, before any modification is made in the test oath in order that they may obtain these routes at the highest rates admissible.

Persons confiding to my care may rely upon fair dealing. All accepted bids will be entered upon the books of the Post Office Department, where they will be open for inspection.

All letters relative to the foregoing should contain a stamp for answer, and be addressed,

*FORM OF A GUARANTY.

The undersigned, residing at ———, State of ———, undertake that if the bid for carrying the mail on the route No. ———, [if the No. be not given it is not essential,] be accepted by the Postmaster General, the bidder shall enter into the required obligation, or contract, to perform the contract with good and sufficient sureties.

Dated: ———

†FORM FOR CERTIFICATE.

The undersigned, postmaster at ———, State of ———, certifies under his oath of office that he is acquainted with the above guarantors and knows them to be men of property and able to make good their guaranty.

Dated: ———.

☞ If it is not convenient for an acting postmaster to fill out the certificate, an old one will answer.

☞ Editors throughout the South will give the foregoing two insertions and forward bill with a copy of paper to the undersigned. Those giving two or more additional insertions will be entitled to a copy of my book, "A Ray of Light," the price of which by mail is $2.

The attention of the press, and particularly of those papers which are publishing Mr. Tyson's "Plan to Restore the Mail Service of the South," is called to the following card lately received from him:

To Persons Desiring Mail Routes.

Persons who have deterred from making application for mail routes, thinking from what is set forth in my advertisement that the terms will be too low, should hesitate no longer but make immediate application, and see if I cant not do considerably better for them than is set forth. I have done this for some and can also for others; therefore make application at once.

Editors who have inserted my advertisement will please make the following change. I desire the clause "which will be about 25 cents" * * * "tri weekly mail" erased.

Editors throughout the South will confer a favor by publishing foregoing.

All applications relative to having post routes changed, post offices established or postmasters appointed, will receive prompt attention by being addressed to INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmer's Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of RATS will have a progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

The Southern Hepatic Pills.

MADE and sold by G. W. DEEMS, the discoverer, who has removed to Baltimore, Md., where he can have access to the purest and best medicines on the most favorable terms. He will always keep on hand a large supply, and will sell to his customers, wholesale and retail, at the shortest notice.

Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been circulated so extensively, they need no recommendation—their merits are well known by their results.

We thank our customers for the liberal patronage given us heretofore, and hope they will continue to favor us by sending their orders to G. W. Deems, No. 28 South Calhoun Street, Baltimore, Md., where they will be promptly attended to. Price 25 cts. per box; $2.50 per dozen. He will also keep on hand a supply of

for the cure of Fever and Ague, and all other chills and fevers.

This Remedy comes in contact with the poison that causes the disease, and utterly destroys it in one day, if used strictly according to the directions accompanying each box. Of the number of cases that have used them, not one has failed to produce an immediate cure, as far as we have heard. This is certainly one of the most remarkable remedies ever brought before the public. A full description of it will accompany each box. This is the very thing for the southern climate.

The very high prices of the medicines of which they are composed compels us to fix the prices as one dollar for a package that will cure the worst case in one day. We can send them to any point in the United States.

He will also keep on hand a supply of a certain cure for rheumatism, sprains, bruises, cramps, pain and weakness in the back and joints, toothache, sunburns, frozen limbs, burns, inflammation, tumors, eruptions of skin, wounds, swellings, sore eyes, hoarseness, sore throat, bronchitis, nervous headache, &c.

It is a sure effectual remedy for the most of the diseases of HORSES—spavin, broken, strains, swellings, wounds, sore chest, sore back, sore eyes. Price 25 cts. per bottle, $2.50 per dozen.

At the above rates they can be sent by mail or express to any point in the United States. The cash must accompany the order. Dealers can have any of these Medicines at 50 per cent discount by the gross.

NEW SOUTHERN MUSIC BOOK.

Just Published:

TABOR,

OR THE

Richmond Collection of Sacred Music.

By R. M. McINTOSH, of Virginia.

Essentially Southern in its main features, TABOR nevertheless contains a choice selection of the best Northern copyright Music. Its author, for four years an officer in the Confederate army, composed many stirring pieces in moments snatched during its marchings and countermarchings in Virginia. The dirge used at the funeral of General T. J. Jackson, (Stonewall,) May 17th, 1863, was from his pen, and is included in this collection.

"Mr. McIntosh," says the Richmond Whig, "is well known throughout the South as an author and teacher of finished excellence, with a musical reputation rarely attained by any man of his age in this country. In the South he stands at the very head of church music, no one disputing the position with him."

The book embraces everything of value of Southern or South-Western origin, much of which is now for the first time reduced to a written form. Its variety is great—embracing all metres in use, in every key, and every variety of measure—with a full elementary department and a fine collection of new anthems, set pieces and sentences. It contains nearly 300 closely printed pages, neatly and tastefully gotten up, well printed and bound.

Price $1 25. $12 00 per dozen.

Can be obtained through all booksellers, or will be mailed by the Publishers to any part of the United States, postage free, on receipt of retail price.

Single copies for examination and introduction, sent to any address, postage paid, on receipt of one dollar.
